The Convention of Sunday Schools and Young Peoples' Societies

The great convention of all the Protestant Sunday schools in Alberta was held in Calgary last week, from Nov. 1st to 4th. To say it was a grand and glorious success is putting it mildly. Such Sunday school experts as Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner of Chicago, Prof. L. L. Henry of Chicago, and Mr. J. M. Johnston of Winnipeg, gave excellent addresses. Besides the Sunday school workers, who met in the Central Methodist Church, there were those interested in the Young Peoples' Societies of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Churches. The Rev. J. W. Aikens, the newly appointed Field Secretary of the Moral Reform Department of the Methodist Church, gave a splendid address, his optimistic spirit was a great incentive to many. Although the addresses were all excellent and the spirit of the whole convention up-lifting and helpful, we must not forget the central committee of The Alberta Sunday School Association, and especially their bustling general secretary, H. F. Kenny. Although seldom seen or heard, he was the great general that commanded all the varied movements of the convention.

The inspiring motto, "Alberta for Christ," was constantly before the convention, it being illuminated by electricity. We hope it was not only the motto of the convention as a whole, but of every living soul that was present.

A Highway for the West

A Winnipeg dispatch states that a beginning has been made in the movement to establish Manitoba's section of the proposed Western highway, which is to ultimately extend to the head of the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast. Would it not be well for the people and government of Alberta to inaugurate a similar movement? A main highway from Lake Superior to the Western coast would be of incalculable benefit to the provinces that it traversed and the expenditures it would necessitate would be justified. The cost of building this highway through the prairie provinces would not be very great as road making is a simple operation on these vast, level expanses. The building of the road through British Columbia would be an expensive undertaking, but if it was found that it was not expedient to embark on this section in the immediate future, the work might be postponed for a few years. No reasonable objection can, however, be advanced to the building of the prairie section. Were this road to be established and so well defined that deviation from it would be practically impossible, it would speedily become a main artery of trade and traffic. Autoists would revel in the opportunity it would offer for more extensive excursions than they now dare make and the farmers would be brought into closer touch with towns and cities that are at present beyond their reach. —Calgary News.

Temperance

Some Striking Facts

One of the most pointed and effective temperance addresses delivered by men of science in the United States was given recently at the Teachers' Institute of Delaware County, Ohio, by Prof. Thos. C. Blaisdell of Lansing. His definition of temperance is especially striking. He says: "Temperance is the moderate use of those things that are helpful, and the total omission of those things that are harmful."

The Professor declares that every man should beware of even the moderate use of liquor for five principal reasons:

First—It threatens the physical structure of the body.

Second—It decreases the capacity for work.

Third—It lowers the mental ability and degenerates the morals.

Fourth—It greatly lessens the chance for health and long life.

Fifth—It causes a man's sins to be visited on his children and his grandchildren.

The Professor asked this question: Why are the working men who drink discriminated against by employers? He then proceeded to answer his own question.

He said that alcohol, even in moderate quantities, decreases the capacity for muscular and mental work, obliterating part of the field of consciousness, and abolishing certain collateral train of thought. Experiments in committing lines from Shakespeare shows that two glasses of beer each day for two years results in a loss of working capacity of the mind from 25 to 40 per cent., and lessens the capacity of the memory to about 70 per cent.

In New Orleans, when the last cholera epidemic broke out, there were 5,000 cases reported before the single man of temperance habits took the disease. In France, in sections where there are no vineyards, there are thirty-three out of every 1000 who die of tuberculosis.

In the sections where the vineyards are plentiful, 108 out of every 1000 die of tuberculosis.

Ten alcoholic families were taken account of producing fifty-seven children. Only ten of the number were normal. Ten non-alcoholic families were taken, producing sixty-one children. Fifty-four of the number were normal, a proportion of eighty-nine to seventeen.

The entire address of Prof. Blaisdell forms a valuable addition to the many pronouncements of science on the alcohol evil.

QUIET HOUR

On the Mount of Blessing

When I am alone with my Saviour, in the hush of the dying day,
On the mount I seem to join Him,
where He has come out to pray,
And I tell Him my grief and heartache,
and the burdens I have borne,
Misjudged, neglected, slighted, until
I am all forlorn.

I seem to see His features, all scarred
but kindly sweet;
And I see His side all bleeding,
and the nail-prints in His feet;
And His hands are raised in blessing,
as I kneel and cry "Forgive me
I am dying with sin and sorrow—but Thou canst bid me live!"

And there alone with my Saviour, in
the awe of the dying day,
With my hand on His seamless garment,
He answers as I pray,
And He says: "There is strength forever in the boundless stores above,
My Father only waits thy prayer to crown thee with His love."

"And in His infinite mercy He will help thee to forgive,
He will spread His wings above thee,
He will teach thee how to live."
And there on the Mount of Blessing, when the discords of daytime
cease,

I lay my sin and my sorrow, and my Saviour gives me peace.
—Emily F. Oddway.

Peace That is Power

God's will may daily be done by those whose place is obscure and whose gifts are humble. Angels in heaven live to do God's will. To do it perfectly and constantly is their supreme endeavor, and their endeavor is not frustrated. Christ came to earth to do the Father's will. At Jacob's well He said to His disciples, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of;" and when they wondered what this saying might mean, He said unto them, "My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work." The will of God is the harmony of the universe, the peace and joy of heaven. It is the perfect law of liberty of angels and of men. "Thy will be done" is the heart of all real prayer. The doing of God's will is our supreme privilege. This we may do it even imperfectly is the badge of our vital relationship to our Saviour. To do it perfectly everywhere and always is the Christian aim. When with all his heart one consecrates himself to the doing of the will of God, he possesses the peace that is power.

The Power of Light

"Faith cometh by hearing," through observing the lives or hearing the testimony of God's children as to His dealings with them. The man who knows God unconsciously gives to others something a great deal more precious than silver and gold every time he speaks of the faithfulness of his heavenly Father. The first thing a sinner always does is to believe in the goodness of some christian. He must do this before he can believe in the goodness of the christian's God. The main reason why there are so many unsaved people all about us is because we are such unfaithful witnesses. If every christian were constantly a burning and a shining light for Christ, sinners everywhere would either have to repent or go without peace, for no man can live in peace anywhere while he is being constantly reminded that he is a disappointment to the God who made him. "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

He Feared Blood Poison.

But Zan-Buk Saved His Thumb!

Once again a case is reported in which the popular balm Zan-Buk cures effects of blood-poisoning from the terrible Ity. Orth, of Shipley, Ont., says:

"While at work I had the misfortune to run a rusty nail under my thumb nail to the depth of about one inch and a half. The pain was terrible and I found that the nail was being so dirty and rusty, would set up festering and blood-poison. I knew from previous experience how good Zan-Buk was, so I cleaned the thumb, and in a little while Zan-Buk ran into the wound. The result was wonderful. It soothed the pain and the thumb actually did not swell. Zan-Buk kept away all inflammation. I am now on with my work, and the time, and in a few days the thumb was as good as ever. A balmy which can do this should be in every workman's home."

Zan-Buk is the finest form of "antiseptic" power is so great that no disease germ can live in it; and if immediately applied to the sore or injury, or discolored patch, all danger of blood-poisoning is averted.

Being composed of pure vegetable essence, Zan-Buk is an ideal balm for babies and young children, and mothers will find it far superior to the ordinary salves, ointments, and ointments which contain harmful mineral poisons, nitrates, and animal matter.

Zan-Buk is a sure cure for rashes, eruptions, eczema, ringworm, itching, poison, scalp sores, chapped hands, cold sores, inflamed patches, but leg, varicose veins and ulcers, piles, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin diseases and irritations. Sold by all druggists and stockholders at a box, 3 for $1.00. Post free from John J. Moore & Co., Toronto, for prices. Avoid harmful imitations and substitutes.

Honus Wagner, the Pittsburgh ball player, has had his statue done in bronze. Mistah Johnson's will be done in silver.

GIVEN UP BY HIS PHYSICIAN

"FRUIT-MEDICINE, SAVED HIS LIFE."

James Dingwall, Ont., July 27, 1908.

"I suffered all my life from Chronic Constipation and no doctor, or remedy, I ever tried helped me. 'Fruit-Medicine' cured me. Also, last spring I had an attack of BLADDER and KIDNEY TROUBLE, and the doctor gave me up but 'Fruit-Medicine' saved my life. I am now over sixty years of age and I strongly recommend 'Fruit-Medicine' to all who suffer from 'Fruit-Medicine'."

"I suffered all my life from Chronic Constipation and no doctor, or remedy, I ever tried helped me. 'Fruit-Medicine' cured me. Also, last spring I had an attack of BLADDER and KIDNEY TROUBLE, and the doctor gave me up but 'Fruit-Medicine' saved my life. I am now over sixty years of age and I strongly recommend 'Fruit-Medicine' to all who suffer from 'Fruit-Medicine'."

WOMEN SWIMMERS.

Some Rare Feats of Experts at the Naturalist Art.

"And when you are going to swim the Channel again?" a society lady asked Captain De la Wale, shortly after his historic feat. "Never, madam," answered the hero of the hour, with a bow. "It is the ladies' turn now."

And, a generation later, it really seemed as if the ladies were going to have a rival, it will have to be a matter of time before the Channel has been wrestled with the Channel and have always come off second best.

Thirty years ago there was one woman who rather a girl, might conceivably have swum the Channel under favorable conditions. One she swam twenty miles in the Thames in 4 hours 25 minutes; and again, she covered ten miles in the excellent time of 2 hours 45 minutes; but Miss Anne Beckett had no ambition to try conclusions with such a formidable opponent as the English Channel.

Other doughty Naïads there were, too, of that day—Miss Emily Parker, who swam nine miles in the Thames in 2 hours 14.2 seconds (not one of which any man might have been proud of), and Miss De la Wale, who swam eight miles in the Thames in 2 hours 14.2 seconds.

Miss De la Wale, who thought nothing of swimming half-a-dozen miles or more in a lake, had no ambition to swim the Channel, but she was a champion swimmer, and she was a champion swimmer.

Isn't this lovely weather? Who can say Alberta isn't rightfully named when it is called "Sunny Alberta, or the Garden of the West?"

Mr. Byrnes has been fortunate to strike a splendid flow of good soft water on his lot. The well is 125 feet deep, although good water was struck at 70 feet.

Farmers are still busy plowing in this district. A country that you can plow nine months in the year is not a bad country to farm. Oh for the South of Alberta!

The membership of the Boy Scouts, who were first organized two years ago, is now 2,000 strong, but as bands are now being formed throughout the United States as well as throughout the British empire, the membership will reach a score of millions in a few years.

Regina's chief of police tried to bluff a London, Ont., missionary's wife that Saskatchewan's capital was not a clean, moral, little burg and threatened to put up $1,000 to back his bluff. She has called him, though her husband and Regina is due to get some unsavory advertising.

On Sunday morning, in the Presbyterian Hall, Misses Ethel Caspeil and Gladys Covey, H. D. Johnson and Rev. J. M. Beaton are to report on the Young People's and Sunday School Conventions, held in Calgary last week. Some of the convention music will be used at this service.

The following were among the announcements at the Presbyterian Hall on Sunday morning: A special meeting of the Ladies' Guild on Wednesday afternoon, the 9th. A meeting of the managers and session at about 3:30. All the men who are able are to gather on Wednesday, to bank and otherwise fix up the Hall for the winter.

The Mormon church has decided that polygamy among its members must cease. Outside of this practice the Mormons have, in the great majority of instances, conducted themselves as model citizens, and the elimination of this one fault will raise them in the estimation of their fellowmen. There are many Mormons in Alberta, and every man who does business with them has nothing but praise for their character and methods.

Many hundreds of acres have been broken this fall in this district, and although the cold is gradually putting a stop to it, stubble plowing and breaking can be seen going on in all directions.

On Monday, Nov. 21st, F. W. Anderson, travelling secretary of the Presbyterian branch of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, will be in Cayley. In the afternoon he will be with the Richardson appointment men, and as many of the women, too, as will be able to come. In the evening he will meet with the Cayley congregation. Fuller particulars regarding these meetings are to be given later.

A Greater Treat Coming.

The Swiss Bell-Ringers gave their excellent concert in Cayley last Thursday night. Although the weather was rather disagreeable and the night very cold, a large crowd attended to hear them, and all went away delighted with the varied programme presented by this talented family. It was indeed a treat to Cayley; but good as this concert was we believe that a still greater treat is in store for the lovers of good music as the Dixie Jubilee Singers are coming to Cayley on Nov. 26th. This is a splendid troop composed of eight persons. Wait for them.

Was on the Timber Wolf

Owing to the alarming increase of the large grey, or timber wolf, along the foothills, and the ravages made by them on both the cattle and horses grazing in that country, the ranchers have decided to try and exterminate them or at any rate, to lessen their number, and for this purpose have decided to tax themselves a certain amount per head on their cattle and horses and from the money so obtained to pay a bounty that it is thought may induce people to hunt and kill these pests. In order to encourage the slaughter of these wolves, the ranchers have decided to pay a bounty of $50 for each grown wolf and $25 for each pup that is killed between Sheep Creek and Willow Creek. By pup is meant the young of next year, and this year's pups being now of age and size when they do nearly as much damage as the old ones.

The Thanksgiving supper and concert given by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church on Monday evening was a decided success. The excellent supper was served in McDonald's Hall, and the ladies deserve credit for the way they looked after everyone who partook of their bountiful repast. The concert was held in the Methodist church and the programme started at 8:15 sharp, and was as follows: First, duet, "Nestled in the arms of Jesus," by Mrs. F. Bushfield, reading, Miss Cassie Collard; solo, Mr. R. Coote; vocal duet, Miss Cassie Collard and Mr. R. Coote; solo, Miss Cassie Collard; solo, Miss Alice Stirling; reading, Miss Cassie Collard; God save the King. The concert and supper was patronized by the largest crowd of people that have been seen at any social gathering in Cayley this year. The church was so crowded that standing room was at a premium. Miss Cassie Collard, the Welsh entertainer, won the hearts of all who heard her sing and recite, and she will be welcomed to Cayley at any future date. Every one of her numbers were encored. The local talent who took part were also much appreciated.

Mr. H. Reid paid Calgary a visit last Thursday.

Mr. F. F. MacDonald paid Calgary a flying visit last Monday.

Mr. J. M. Glendenning, M.P.P., was in Cayley on business last Thursday.

Cayley was well represented at the great Sunday School convention that was held in Calgary last week. Misses H. Wickens, E. Caspeil and G. Covey; Mr. Strang, Rev. J. M. Beaton, Rev. F. and Mrs. Bushfield attended.

King George has issued a proclamation fixing the date of the coronation as June 22nd.

Prestident Taft has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, November 24th, as a day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Belle Elmore Crippen, for whose murder Dr. Crippen is to be hanged on Tuesday next in London, is declared to be alive in the United States, by Francis Tracy Tobin, a lawyer, living in Philadelphia.

Great dissatisfaction is expressed at the action of the C.P.R. in reducing the train service to three trains a week instead of four as hitherto. The fact that the postal authorities had decided to inaugurate a four-mail a week service makes it all the more annoying. It seems to be a case for the Board of Trade to take up. Monday, Wednesday and Saturday is a bad division of the week. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday are far more preferable.—Carmanagay Sun.

It is stated by Mr. Sheldon's Ottawa agent, that at least $500,000 of Ottawa's money has appeared with Mr. Sheldon. It seems probable when we consider everything that our greed costs us vastly more than our philanthropy, and that Canada spends a good deal more in unprofitable speculation than she does either in religion or in education.

The city of New York has decided to go into the public milk business, and next Summer pasteurized milk will be supplied by the municipality to those citizens who may desire it. Stations will be established throughout the city where pasteurized milk will be sold and where physicians and nurses will be in attendance to instruct mothers as to the proper care of children.

The conference of American and Canadian trade experts at Ottawa last Saturday was the first of its kind to be held in the Dominion. Hitherto all such conferences have been held in the States. The fact that the Americans accepted the invitation was in the nature of an ultimatum, indicates that the United States is more anxious than Canada that there should be a freer exchange of natural products between the two countries.

The other day the click of the instrument on the telephone operator's table at Edmonton announced the fact that the Government telegraph line had reached Peace River country, over one hundred miles North-west of Edmonton. This brings that great land of promise, known as the Peace River country, into quick communication with the older settled parts, and marks another step in the opening up and settlement of "The Last West."

With We Had a Sackful of It
Considerable Canadian money, both bank bills and silver coins, circulate in the state of Montana, and hitherto has always passed without question, so good is the reputation of Canadian financial institutions in that country. But recently, in some way, it got noised about that all coins bearing the head of the late King Edward and on which the face and reverse sides have designs the same way up are counterfeit. As the whole of the King Edward coinage is this way, whereas the Queen Victoria coinage, as well as all American coins have the designs opposite way up, there has been much turning down of Canadian money by Montana banks and business houses. Local banks have been receiving numerous inquiries from banks across the line asking if the King Edward coins with both designs the same way up are good or bad. They have replied that all King Edward coins were made that way.
